been detained on the basis of danger and/or risk of flight. In addition, six defendants have waived their rights, without prejudice, to detention hearings. The release of defendant Paul Kozina on a $200,000 secured bond is currently pending. Defendant David Weld was originally released on an unsecured bond co-signed by three sureties; however, this defendant is currently in state custody due to an outstanding bench warrant from San Francisco Superior Court for a drug offense. Since defendant Weld is unable to post bail on the state matter, he remains in local custody at this time and his bail in the current matter has been revoked. Finally, at least six of the fourteen defendants have prior drug felony convictions making them eligible for mandatory sentencing enhancement pursuant to 21 U.S.C. Section 851.

1. Nature of the Case

The indictment in this matter is the culmination of an over two-year investigation by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. In connection with the investigation, six separate court orders for electronic surveillance were obtained from March 2007 through November 2007. The wiretaps targeted the drug distribution activity of the members of the Zaragoza family, which include Guillermo ZARAGOZA, Martin ZARAGOZA, Roberto RUIZ, Eduardo ZARAGOZA, and Juan ZARAGOZA. Other principal defendants in this case include Manuel CORONA, Martel VALENCIA and David QUEZADA. During the course of this investigation, approximately 6.5 pounds of methamphetamine and approximately $56,000 dollars in drug proceeds were seized from the defendants. All of the defendants are charged in Count 1 of the indictment – a conspiracy to distribute and possess with the intent to distribute 50 grams or more of methamphetamine. Various defendants are charged in the seven substantive counts which allege specific distributions of methamphetamine based upon actual seizures or intercepted communications.

² The Application submitted in the absence of Assistant United States Attorney Stephen H. Jigger, in support of the wire communications, was in an incorrect format. As a result, even though the Orders and the underlying supporting affidavit were correct, upon discovery of this error, on May 16, 2007, all interceptions were immediately terminated. The recorded interceptions between May 10, 2007, and May 16, 20007, were sealed contemporaneously with a new Application, Order and Order to Telephone Company signed by the Court on May 17, 2007.

ZARAGOZA, GUILLERMO ZARAGOZA, MANUEL CORONA, MARTEL VALENCIA, and the other indicted co-conspirators in this case were involved in the distribution of methamphetamine in the San Francisco and San Jose areas and elsewhere.

3. Possible Related Case

11 search warrants were executed on February 27, 2008 in connection with this case. During the search of defendant Martel VALENCIA's home in San Jose, California, an individual identified as Francisco Mora Alvarez (hereinafter "Alvarez") was found in one of the bedrooms of the house and in possession of approximately 750 grams of a mixture or substance containing methamphetamine. Alvarez was subsequently arrested and charged in a criminal complaint (Crim. No. 03-08-70105 MEJ) with a violation of Title 21, United States Code, Section 841. On March 6, 2008, a federal grand jury indicted Alvarez for the aforementioned violation. Alvarez's case (Crim. No. 08-0143) has been assigned to the Hon. Ronald M. Whyte, U.S.D.J., in San Jose, California. Although Alvarez was found in possession of methamphetamine in one of the homes of the indicted defendants in the case currently before this Court, the Government submits that at this time, the only potential overlap between Alvarez's case and the current matter is the search warrant and any suppression motions that may arise out of the search. The Government will file related case notices to both this Court and the Hon. Ronald M. Whyte which will explain in more detail any potential overlaps between these two cases.

4. Discovery

This case is complex because six separate periods of electronic surveillance were used and search warrants were executed at 11 locations. The United States has assumed that opposing counsel agree to be bound by the reciprocal provisions of Fed. R. Crim. Rule 16(b)(1), and as a result the United States will voluntarily provide Rule 16 discovery. The following information summarizes the material known to the Government at this time and which has been or will be provided to counsel forthwith. Materials solely relating to individual defendants will only be provided to their respective counsel.

Discovery in this case has already commenced. Legal documents including wiretap affidavits, applications and orders have already been disclosed. Copies of all recorded conversations have also been disclosed. Line sheets and draft transcripts of the wire interceptions have been disclosed and the Government has requested all parties to sign a stipulation regarding such transcripts. In addition, to assist the defense, separate CDs which contain all of the intercepted communications for each defendant have already been disclosed. The search warrant affidavit, applications for the search warrants, the warrants, as well as the pen registers and pole camera information will be provided to opposing counsel shortly.

Reports of any oral statements made by individual defendants to law enforcement will be provided to their respective counsel.

Rule 16(a)(1)(B) - Written or Recorded Statements

5. Trial Management

Because there are defendants who have yet to be transported to this district and one defendant who remains at-large, the possibility of a related case, and because discovery has just commenced, it is recommended that this matter be continued for sixty days for further status. This continuance will allow out-of district defendants to arrive and obtain counsel while permitting the discovery process to proceed and the resolution of the related case matter. The Speedy Trial Act provides, and the Government requests, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(8)(A) and (B)(ii) and (iv), a finding of excludable time for the entire period from the inception of the case³ through and including May 12, 2008 on the basis of complexity, the need for effective preparation, and continuity of counsel.

The Government recognizes that the current number of defendants makes a single trial unmanageable. However, consolidated consideration of pre-trial discovery and other issues is necessary. Well in advance of a trial, and after any pre-trial motions and guilty pleas have been entered in the case, the Government will propose to the Court a manageable breakdown of the remaining defendants for trial.

DATED: March 11, 2008. Respectfully submitted,
